Being protected is a fundamental right

ROADMAP

1 ° SHARP RISK

24 JANUARY

Universe and world ecosystem: risks from space, natural disasters, environmental and climatic disturbances

- The limits of infinite growth

Making sustainability sustainable by starting from the finite: from the idea of protection to renewable sources

- Total-Risk: the new paradigm and the world to come's new vocabulary

Or: because risk management and risk assessment are no longer sufficient

- Waterthinking & Risk-Neutralization

The overcoming of the probabilistic calculation, Risk cancellation and the birth of the thought that occupies the whole cognitive space: I defend myself if I know what I must protect myself from

- An ecosystem of opportunities

From risk neutralization to new technological opportunities (humanity that survives): mobility, energy, sustainability

2° SHARP RISK

24 JANUARY

World's sublimation: social risks and conflicts resulting from the breaking down of borders and from ever more rapid mutations in all areas

- Migration of ideas, migrations of values

From the digital world of society of performance to society of people

- Migration of decision centers

The future of democracy between economic totalitarianisms and distributed blockchains

- Demographic migration

Demographic winters and social springs: what future do we want? Between the return of siege art and the lack of social allocations

3° SHARP RISK

24 GENNAIO

Sovereignty / Authority: universal wars for the sovereignty of physical and cyber territories (and their resources)

- Globalization and information

Platforms VS people: the art of defense in the de-individualized world

- Digital flows Governance

The new protection of personal data, the new privacy. From the concept of copyright to the concept of unicityright™

- People individual protection

Physical, digital and intellectual protection of people, the fulcrum of the protection of Society: why Life First! and why human's goal must return to be human being
